NOTES AND ORDERS.

It is not quite clear from the Supt's letter whether cream laid note paper is one of the articles which Messrs. Alex. Pirie & Sons have undertaken to supply under the three years contract with them Sanctioned in G. O. No. 710 dtd 22-09-(1) dtd 30.8.09. In formation on this point will be called for, if approved.

2. It is not also understood why purchase of articles, to meet next year's requirements should be made now, unless it is profitable to do so. They reduce the budget grant sanctioned for the current year's demands & it is not unlikely that they will be lost sight of when the next year's requirements are estimated. The usual practice of obtaining the requisite supply by inviting tenders each year and accepting the most advantageous offer both in regard to quality & price has much to recommend it.

Please call for supply remarks on this.

From this communication it is seen that the note paper now proposed to be purchased is one of the kinds of paper referred to in ~~the~~ Gen-Misc. file 108-08 (85. 7-11). A reference is invited to the Revds. Secretary's note of 29th June 1909 on that file. As suggested in that note ~~it may~~ the present market-rate of the paper may perhaps be ascertained before sanctioning the purchase of it from Messrs. Oake & Co.

There are, however, two ~~other~~ points to be considered in this connection. The Supt. says that the proposed purchase will not affect the current year's grants as ~~that~~ the cost will be paid from the next year's budget. But it is doubtful whether this procedure is warranted by the rules.

The other point is ~~whether~~ that we may have to ~~not bound to~~ buy this paper from

The circumstances under which Mr. Yates proposes the purchase of the note paper from Messrs. Oakes & Co are the same as those under which a similar purchase was sanctioned in the G.O. of 15.7.09. The notes in that file (108 of 7-11) clearly explain the circumstances. On the same considerations, sanction may perhaps be accorded to the Supdt's proposal, if necessary after making enquiries regarding the present market rate of the paper and the willingness of Oakes & Co to supply it at such rate.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that 120 reams of cream laid bakepaper — estimated for the next official year, are available at Messrs. Oakes and Co Ltd Messrs, who supplied last year at Rs 1-6-2. The rate offered by the Contractors Messrs Alex Pearson and Sons of Aberdeen, for the said items will be the same including landing charges upto delivery — Bangalore. Request therefore that Sanction of Government be accorded for purchasing the same from Messrs Oakes and Co, who are willing to supply at the last year's rate viz Rs 1-6-2 per ream duly enclosed.

Awaiting early orders on the subject.

I have the honor to be,
Sir

TO C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esquire, B.A.
Offg: Secretary to Government.
General and Revenue Departments,

SIR,

Referring to your docket no. G 3861/6.M. 105-10-10 dated 31st December 1910, I have the honour to state that cream laid note paper is one of the items contracted for by Messrs. Alex: Pirie & Sons of Aberdeen, the present contractors, but this paper has not been purchased from them till now. This item was last purchased some five years back from Messrs. Oakes and Co. who were then contractors, which lasted till last year. During last year the same was purchased from them at a reduced rate Viz: Rs 1-6-2, equivalent to that of present contractors' rate. Therefore I proposed to buy this paper again from them as they are willing to sell the same at last year's rate. This paper being required for the next official year, it will be paid out of next year's budget; hence it will not reduce current year's budget grant.

GPB—2,000—22-3-10.

Under

Under these circumstances, I request that sanction may be accorded to purchase the paper from Messrs. Oakes & Co. who have with them ready for supply.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
